

Directions Training Opens New Location in Vienna, Virginia

PR Newswire

VIENNA, Va., Oct. 18, 2011

VIENNA, Va., Oct. 18, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Directions Training recently opened a new training facility in Vienna, Virginia. Located within the Washington Metropolitan Area, this facility is easily accessible by the Metro and other forms of public transportation.

This new training center plays host to hundreds of classes taught by certified instructors that specialize in IT, project management and business skills training. Classes are offered for Microsoft, CompTIA, Cisco, Citrix, ITIL, VMware, Project Management, Six Sigma, Information Assurance and much more.

"We have been operating in the Washington Metropolitan area for years and feel that Vienna is a great addition to our nationwide consortium of training facilities," said Directions Training President Jennifer Didier. "We have a vast amount of experience training government personnel, as well as corporate employees. This location allows us to cater to both audiences."

On October 27, 2011, Directions Training will host their Grand Opening Celebration at their Vienna facility. The day will consist of keynote presentations on the topics of security, mobility, learning and innovation from leading experts from around the globe. Breakfast and lunch will be provided and facility tours will be given. All participants will be entered into a drawing for an iPad 2, Xbox 360, free technical and applications classes and more. The event is FREE of charge and is open to the public. To find out more about Directions Training's Grand Opening or to register, email Stephanie Pellegrino at spellegrino@directionstraining.com.

"From Microsoft to Cisco, our Grand Opening keynote presentations will consist of valuable information that will infuse participants with important knowledge," said Didier. "If you are in IT, project management or interact with technology on any level, this is an event you don't want to miss. In addition there will be lots of good food, fun and prizes."
